Subject: New information on Grades, Student Policies, Virtual Celebration of Spring Graduates

Dear Dietrich School and CGS Faculty and Staff Colleagues,

I interrupt you on a beautiful spring day with a few notices about the end of this very unusual term:

Spring Term Grades

Faculty now have until Monday, May 4 to submit spring term grades in PeopleSoft. An updated Grades Calendar is available at <https://www.registrar.pitt.edu/calendars/grades-calendar>.

S/NC Guidance

The University is enabling all undergraduate and graduate students to opt to switch letter grades to Satisfactory/No Credit after grades are posted. More information is available at <https://www.personaled.pitt.edu/snc-advisors>.

Delay in G to NG Conversion

The Registrar's Office will not run the automatic process converting G grades that are a year old to NG in April. No G grades will expire this term.

Academic Standing

No students will be suspended or dismissed at the conclusion of the spring term.

Academic Integrity

We continue to promote and uphold the School's Academic Integrity Code. The AI violation form is available at <https://www.as.pitt.edu/faculty/policies-and-procedures>. Professor Danielle Andrews-Brown, Assistant Dean and Academic Integrity Officer, is available to answer any questions regarding academic integrity procedures/guidelines via email at dma65@pitt.edu.

Virtual Celebration of April 2020 Graduates

The University will be holding a virtual celebration of our spring graduates on April 26 at 11:30 a.m. More information is available at <https://www.pittwire.pitt.edu/news/pitt-virtually-celebrate-class-2020-april-26>. Departments and programs should not schedule any activities that conflict with the University's ceremony from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Zoom Training

https://calendar.pitt.edu/event/zoom_training_webinar_7203#.Xo3zw4hKjOh

Pitt IT and Zoom have teamed up to bring you this live, interactive webinar on Friday, April 10 from 11:00am – 12:00pm. Learn the fundamentals of Zoom, including how to:

- Create Your Account and Sign In
- Manage Your Settings
- Schedule Meetings
- Host and Manage your Meeting
- Tips to Secure your Meeting
- Learn Where to Get Help

Thank you for all you do for our students and university!

All the best,

Kathy
